

Educated in the Midwest: Joined telecom industry (audit, accounting and finance) at public technology companies *Sprint, Telecom*USA, & MCI*; moved to large client/"Big 5" consulting firm Arthur Andersen Business Consulting; then gained operational expertise by executing and/or leading projects at under-performing (turnaround) clients across a range of industries for top-15 firm *Morris*Anderson*. Served at specialty, independent consulting firms: led engagements; refinancings; downsizings; renegotiations; risk assessments; due diligence; M&A; as a preferred receiver resource for Federal agencies (SEC, FTC, CFPB). Executed C-Suite assignments and advisory roles within governance, business operations and compliance oversight. Uncovered, testified, dealt with 12 civil/criminal fraud cases aggregating to $350 million of economic events); rebuilt management and processes within these organizations and businesses.

Public, Private Equity, and Private Companies: Currently active serving as Consultant, Mentor, Coach, Strategic/Risk Management, and Problem-Solving Advisor to company management teams and boards of directors – especially as referred by existing and trusted subject matter experts and board committees. Hard value and actions provided within core strategies and problem-solving, operational-transformation and transitions, risk management, due diligence and front-end (transactional/strategic investment) assessments. Some highlighted Public/Private Company credentials from advisory, turnaround, consulting, and management team roles include:

- President & CEO, Public Company - Financial Services: $550 million financial services company operating in 18 states, 1,100 locations and nearly 4,000 sales and field operations personnel. Appointed by the board via its trusted, external law firm advisor during a contentious period of significant scrutiny from Federal agencies, related legal actions, claims against the company and management. Assessed and stabilized performance; ensured completion of FCPA remediation efforts; focused management team on growth/risk, customers, and compliance; enacted new messaging via a specialty PR-crisis firm. Fulfilled all Board of Directors' assignments; achieved new 52-week stock-price high within 5 months.
- CEO/Management Trustee for AT&T/Centennial merger: Nominated by United States Department of Justice ("DoJ") and appointed by Washington DC Federal District judge. Served as CEO for $160 million wireless entity held for resale by AT&T: 160,000 subscribers, 320 cell sites, 32 retail stores in LA/MS. Operations sold and transitioned to Verizon and a Private Equity firm.
- CEO/Management Trustee for Verizon/Alltel merger transaction: Recommended by US DoJ and appointed by a Washington DC Federal District judge to serve as CEO of $1.2 Billion entity (1,200 personnel, 1.6 million customers in several states and major USA metropolitan areas). Selected management team, dealt with all Federal/State Agencies, defined infrastructure independence, executed all pre-divestiture decisions/acquisition actions required by court order(s).
- Telecommunications and Operations Consultant to CEO/Management Trustee: As recommended by the US DoJ, (Telecom Enforcement Division) selected to fill advisory, oversight, and operational consulting roles within the following government agency-regulated telecom/wireless transactions:
 - o AT&T/Dobson merger: 95,000 customers, $100 million revenue & operations in three states;
 - o Verizon/Rural Cellular: 165,000 customers, $168 million revenue Northeast and West coast.

Possess executive expertise (CEO/COO/CFO) and achieved superlative operating/consulting results for mid-market (private) to large public companies in high-tech/wireless, financial services, healthcare, manufacturing, and Not for Profit. An established speaker (150 events), writer/blogger/content-contributor to business periodicals -- on leadership, business ethics,

JIM WANSERSKI: RELEVANT & HIGHLIGHTED EXPERIENCES/ROLES

“risk/best practices,” governance, fraud prevention/detection topics; historically served as an adjunct professor at alma mater in Kansas City, MO.

Executive skills, industry experiences, and consulting successes are best utilized in advisory and leadership roles requiring “hands-on” guidance to resolve growth, operational, performance, risk management, and cultural “fit” challenges.

Reside in Dallas, TX -- serving and advising clients coast-to-coast.